

Substantiated Complaint and Adverse Action Report Last Updated: January 15, 2021

In accordance with 22 CFR Part 96.91 the Accrediting Entity must make information available regarding adverse actions for all Adoption Service Providers. The following report lists all Adoption Service Providers, both currently active and those which are no longer accredited or approved. Historical information related to adverse action of suspension, cancellation, refusal to renew accreditation or approval, and debarment by the accrediting entity or the Secretary is provided within the body of this report.

To review an Adoption Service Provider’s history of adverse action, click on the name of the provider below. Upon clicking on an individual Adoption Service Provider’s name, information may be reviewed of adverse actions implemented by Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity since April 1, 2018. To see historical information for adverse actions taken by the previous Accrediting Entity, the Council on Accreditation please see the document located on the IAAME website.

Apart from the information provided in this report and the information contained in the Who is Accredited Report (<https://www.iaame.net/accreditation/accredited-approved-agencies-persons/>), information regarding the reason for the adverse action of suspension, cancellation, refusal to renew accreditation or approval, and debarment of an adoption service provider will be made available upon request. Furthermore, information regarding the history of substantiated complaints against an Adoption Service Provider, including the status and nature of such complaints, will be made available to individuals upon request. Such requests may be made by contacting IAAME at contact@iaame.net, or through submission via the IAAME website Contact Us page by visiting www.IAAME.net.

In the following listing, if you click on the name of the Adoption Service Provider for which you are seeking information and you are not directed to a page containing information related to adverse action, IAAME has not imposed adverse action against that Adoption Service Provider.
